

Biography
Barbara A. Culverhouse

Barbara A. Culverhouse is the Supervisor of Offsite Emergency Planning for Southern California Edison's San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station.

Ms. Culverhouse has been with Southern California Edison since 1985 and has extensive experience with both onsite and offsite emergency planning issues. In her current position, Ms. Culverhouse is responsible for all aspects of offsite emergency planning including the Emergency News Center and public education.

Ms. Culverhouse holds a B.S. degree in Business Management and lives in Laguna Niguel, CA.