

Michael K. Meehan

Mr. Meehan is a Captain with the Seattle Police Department where he has served for eighteen years. In addition to working as a first responder for over ten years, he has served in a variety of assignments including Field Training Officer, Crime Analysis Detective, and Field Training Commander where he developed one of the most comprehensive Field Training Officer Evaluation systems in the country. He worked both venues and the field during the Seattle World Trade Organization riots. He recently oversaw the Seattle Police Department's Public Information, Internal Auditing, Policy and National Accreditation efforts. He is currently assigned as Commander of the Seattle Police Department's East Precinct.

Captain Meehan plans to assist the Department of Homeland Security during TOPOFF 3 in 2005. He was the Police Incident Commander for the TOPOFF 2 Full-Scale Exercise in Seattle.