

Biography

NICHOLAS P. DAVIS, NATIONAL NUCLEAR SECURITY ADMINISTRATION (NNSA), OFFICE OF SECURE TRANSPORTATION

Nick Davis is a retired Air Force Non-Commissioned Officer who spent his career in the security and law enforcement field. Upon his retirement from the Air Force he spent three years as a Program Manager of a Halfway House in Albuquerque. Since 1985, Nick has been with the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) and now with NNSA. He spent 12 years as a Federal Agent transporting classified systems for the government. He then moved to Commercial Traffic Management for Albuquerque Operations. Now he is the Program Manager for Emergency Operations and the TEPP (Transportation Emergency Preparedness Program) Region 4 Coordinator.