

Biography
Roger D. Hieb

Roger Hieb is the Homeland Security Section Manager for the Emergency Management Division of the Washington State Military Department. He has been a member of the Emergency Management Division since 1992 and has held several positions within the organization. Prior to assuming the duties in his current position in October, 2003, he managed the Exercise, Public Education and Training Section for the State Emergency Management Division. Roger was the Washington State coordinator for the TOPOFF 2 exercise. Prior to joining the Emergency Management Division, Roger served 26 years on active federal service with the U.S. Army. His experience and background in the U.S. Army includes numerous command, operations and training related assignments. Roger holds a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree from Idaho State University and a Masters of Public Administration Degree from the University of Missouri at Kansas City.