

Short Biography

Onalee Grady Erickson
Infectious Disease Outbreak Program Coordinator
State of Minnesota
Department of Public Safety
Homeland Security and Emergency Management

Onalee has been with the Department of Public Safety, Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management since October of 2001. She is the Infectious Disease Outbreak program coordinator. She graduated from the College of St. Benedict with a degree in Biology. Her background includes off-site response for nuclear generating plants, consulting, certified emergency manager, a registered environmental health specialist, contingency planning and working in government relations for the healthcare industry.