

Biographical Sketch of Captain Thomas J. Martin:

Over 34 years of diverse law enforcement experience having served with the Virginia State Police since 1974. Currently, the Commander of the Criminal Intelligence Division. Has been Division Commander of large State Police Patrol Divisions and participated in major law enforcement missions, such as, the Terrorist attack at the Pentagon, and was a multi-agency task force leader deployed to Mississippi after hurricane Katrina. Possesses significant background in law enforcement, incident response and incident command. Maintains a close working relationship with public and private partners in the field of public safety and transportation management.